SpringHill Suites Tulsa Offers New Look and Amenities for Guests

Fully Renovated All-Suites Property Offers Travelers Deluxe High-Tech Amenities

Tulsa, O.K. – (February 28, 2012) The SpringHill Suites Tulsa by Marriott is sporting a brand new modern look and feel for guests at the Oklahoma hotel.

"Our SpringHill Suites hotel features the latest upscale, high-tech amenities that are perfect for both leisure and business travelers to the Tulsa area," said General Manager Craig Lovell. "We are excited to offer these new hotel features to our guests in a contemporary, tranquil environment where guests can relax, work and feel at home."

Among the many innovative amenities now available at the SpringHill Suites Tulsa are flat-screen high-definition televisions in every guest room, iPod clock docking stations, complimentary high-speed Internet service, and an expanded business center. The property also features a cutting-edge fitness center with cardio-theater personal viewing equipment and free weights and a fully redesigned lobby complete with convenient social meeting space.

"We wanted to provide visitors to our hotel with first-class amenities while providing them a comfortable and refreshing room at a great price," Lovell said.

The hotel has been fully renovated with guest comfort in mind. The 76 suites provide visitors with a dedicated in-suite workspace with a desk and deluxe ergonomic chair and convenient microwaves and refrigerators. With calming green and turquoise hues, each suite is truly designed to be a home away from home.

"We want the SpringHill Suites Tulsa to be the premier property among the hotels available to Tulsa travelers," Lovell said. "Our guests have been amazed with the change and have made us their first choice for Tulsa travels."

Conveniently located off of Highway 169 near Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, the SpringHill Suites Tulsa offers guests convenient access to many local attractions such as the popular Cinemark/IMAX, the historic district, the University of Tulsa, and more.
